

On-Line Continuing Education

January thru March 2016

Getting the most out of your Besser CAM Block Machines

We discuss the Besser (CAM) machine cycle in-depth including the timers and what their functions are and the adjustments necessary to make high quality product from the first cycle to the last.

January 8th, 2016 : 10am & 1pm (CST)

<https://attendee.gototraining.com/r/5576840994404378882>

Training our Workforce—Where to start and what you can do

What is your game plan for training your employees in 2016? Do you have one? We will discuss some strategies on getting the most out of the upcoming production season and what we can do to make sure that our staff gets the necessary training they need.

February 12th, 2016 : 10am & 1pm (CST)

<https://attendee.gototraining.com/rt/2789979240224784386>

Splitting product—the do's and don't for high quality splits

We will cover all aspects of splitting (including competitive models) and how to change blades and set-up splitter to get the highest quality splits from the first product to the last. In this training session we will answer all customer issues so please have a lot of questions ready for the group.

March 25th, 2016 : 10am & 1pm (CST)

<https://attendee.gototraining.com/rt/8216405573857518594>

We value you as a customer and appreciate your business, these FREE training sessions are just one way we can show our appreciation and thank you for keeping Besser your vendor of choice. THANK YOU!